Boyerstown

Newsletter 11th March 2019

- We wish the best of luck to the eighteen boys and girls in 2nd Class who will celebrate the Sacrament of First Confession (Reconciliation) in Boyerstown Church tomorrow evening (Tuesday) at 7.30pm.
- Many thanks to all the boys and girls and staff who dressed up as their favourite book character last Friday to celebrate World Book Day. All the boys and girls had great fun with their different book activities throughout the week.
- This week is Seachtain na Gaeilge in Boyerstown. The teachers and pupils will engage in different activities promoting the Irish language this week and we encourage parents/guardians and siblings to use their cúpla focail when they can mar shampla Conas atá tú, Dia Dhuit ar maidin, go raibh maith agat agus más é do thoil é with the pupils at home. On Thursday every pupil is asked to dress in green and to bring in two euros. We will buy an Irish dairy goat for €300.00 from the charity Bóthar to send to a family in Africa. Thank you for your support in this. All the pupils will take place in a Céili dance in the school yard on Thursday to celebrate Seachtain na Gaeilge and St. Patricks Day.
- Aldi supermarket are running a healthy eating/sports promotion at the moment in conjunction with the mens and womens Irish rugby teams. Every €30 you spend, you will receive a rugby personality sticker. If our school can collect 300 stickers by the end of March, we can be entered into their class teacher.
- For St. Patricks Weekend, the school is closed this Friday 15th March and Monday 18th March and will reopen next Tuesday 19th March.
- Best of luck to Miss O'Brien and the Camogie Mini-7's team who compete in Dunderry this Wednesday starting @ 1.30pm.
- The girls Mini-7's football team were pipped in their final game v Scoil Éanna, Navan last Thursday in St. Pauls. There were great performances from all the girls involved.
- The boys Mini-7's gaelic football team beat Dunderry N.S., but lost their other 3 games last Tuesday in Bohermeen. Well done to the eventual winners Bohermeen N.S.
